Missing Woman's Family Returns for Answers Missing Wilmington Woman - Going on Four Weeks

Wilmington, NC. – Allison Jackson Foy's family will not give up in finding her; family members of Allison will return August 24, 2006, arriving at ILM at 10:00 am. The missing woman's family arrived in North Carolina shortly after they learned of her disappearance, July 30th. Family members extended from New York, New Jersey and Rhode Island, staying for well over a week, briefly returning home to re group.

Allison Foy, vanished form the Junction Billiards Sports Bar located at 5216 Carolina Beach Road in Wilmington, NC; no one has head from her since. She was employed at the Holiday Inn Hotel as an assistant manager. Days later the vehicle Allison was driving was located in the parking of the billiard pub.

Now, with help from her New Jersey friends, a website has been Launched seeking information of their own. The website features additional photos of Allison, contact information as well as the announced reward. <http://www.helpfindallison.com/>

A benefit in New Jersey will take place to aid the family in the search for Allison; August 25, 2006 at 8:00 pm to be held at Bardi's Restaurant and Bar 149 Newark Pompton Turnpike, Pequannock, NJ.

We are very scared for Allison and of her unknown whereabouts. The feeling of frustration we are enduring as a family has no measure, as her disappearance has brought forth many false leads; leaving nothing for us to hold on too, 'said Lisa Valentino', Allison's sister.

CUE Center volunteers will continue to search for Allison and provide continual support to her family, said CUE's Founder, Monica Caison.

Anyone with information about Allison Jackson Foy's disappearance or her whereabouts is asked to call their local law enforcement agency or the confidential 24-hour tip-line at the CUE Center for Missing Persons: (910) 232-1687. Tips can also be cuecenter@aol.com or left at the Center's Web site at www.ncmissingpersons.org.
