Mysterious Disappearance of Wilmington Woman CUE Center for Missing Persons Seeks Information

Wilmington, NC. – Allison Jackson Foy, disappeared from the Junction Billiards Sports Bar located at 5216 Carolina Beach Road in Wilmington, NC; little is known concerning that night other than customers recalling seeing the missing woman before she vanished.

On July 30th a Saturday night, Allison left her job, employed by Holiday Inn Hotel as an assistant manager to meet friends at a local pub. Allison did arrive and seemed to be in good spirits according to customers and friends. Days later the vehicle Allison was driving was located in the parking of the billiard pub.

"She was upbeat and excited about her new position, and she kept saying how much of great opportunity it was," Lisa Valentino, Allison's sister, said. "It was the happiest I had seen her in a long time," she added.

"It's upsetting not to know where she is and each day that passes, that feeling gets worse," she said.

Many families suffer anxiety and fear of the unknown, said Monica Caison, the center's founder. We have spent the entire time with the family of Allison upon their arrival over a week ago. There have been rumors, some too horrific to bear, none of which have produced Allison, so the search continues.

Anyone with information about Allison Jackson Foy's disappearance or her whereabouts is asked to call their local law enforcement agency or the confidential 24-hour tip-line at the CUE Center for Missing Persons: (910) 232-1687. Tips can also be cuecenter@aol.com or left at the Center's Web site at www.ncmissingpersons.org.
