Raleigh – Durham May Hold Information to Wilmington Missing Woman Woman Missing Over Four Months

Wilmington, NC. – Allison Jackson Foy encountered three Raleigh - Durham women visiting the Wilmington area and they might have been the last people to have seen her before she vanished. Witnesses say Allison spent time with the females that night and exited the pub at the same time, briefly speaking in the parking lot before they got into a cab, returning to their lodging at Carolina Beach, NC.

All we know is that females came to Wilmington to visit for the weekend and were at the pub for a good part of that evening, "said, Monica Caison, CUE's Center's Founder"; we are hopeful that we can locate the females as they might have seen something to aid the case.

Allison's family and friends have returned to the area repeatedly To look for her and information in regards to her disappearance. The trips are becoming an emotional roll a coaster, "said Lisa Valentino, Allison's sister".

Last month a new reward of $3,000 in addition to the crime stoppers reward, Wilmington offers remains in place. Allison vanished on July 30, 2006; she has not been seen or heard from since. The reward is offered to any person that can provide the direct location of Allison's whereabouts and tipsters can remain anonymous.

Allison Foy was last seen at the Junction Billiards Sports Bar located at 5216 Carolina Beach Road in Wilmington, NC; she was employed at the Holiday Inn Hotel as an assistant manager. Days later the vehicle Allison was driving was located in the parking of the billiard pub.

The family will hold a press conference and offering them support other families of the missing, such as Kara Roberts. Her sister Leah disappeared six years ago and still has not been located.

The conference will be Tuesday, December 5, 2006 at 10:00 am; 1801 North Harrison Avenue, exit 287 in Cary, NC. We need to find these females so we can move on if they do not have any information, "said Lisa Valentino", and through the press is our only hope to reach out to them".
